

PROF. LORENZ REIBLING

Chairman& Partner

Lorenz Reibling is focused on the development and nourishment of international relationships with investors and product sources predominantly in Taurus' non-US related businesses. He is a frequent speaker at real estate conferences, and an advisor to the renowned MIT/CRE Center of Real Estate in Cambridge, MA. As Chairman of Taurus Investment Holdings, LLC, Lorenz also acts as a spokesperson for the firm.

Lorenz is a founder of Taurus, and has been involved in hundreds of commercial real estate transactions since 1979.

Mr. Reibling is a professor at Boston College in the fields of history and theology, co-sponsor of research, book and exhibition projects such as bi-annual symposia on holocaust and resistance, the 2005 EPiC Oil and Water Colloquium at Tufts University, and "Colorful Gods", an exhibition in the Harvard Sackler Museum. He is a frequent participant and supporter of the "Liechtenstein Congress" series, a regular summit on sustainable architecture, real estate and infrastructure development and responsible investing Co-producer and sponsor of various film and video productions on human rights and on holocaust research.